The Information Hub for Southeastern Cyclists!

EVENT DETAILS:

DATE: Sunday
June 6, 2004
Rain or shine

REGISTRATION:
8:15 a.m.

Park Closes at 5:00 p.m.

LOCATION: Moore's Creek
National Battlefield

On Highway 210, one mile south of Currie. From Wilmington, take Route 421 north, turn left onto Blueberry Rd. (look for bike marker), then left onto Route 210.

Registration includes:
Tee-shirt (pre-registration only), lots of refreshments, prize drawings and a chance to meet some wonderful canines!

Riders must wear a helmet. No exceptions. Personal water carriers recommended.

Four different loop routes ranging from 18 to 30 miles each. Ride them all and you've done the Century Ride (100 miles)!

Ride at your own pace and select your own distance in a rural area with flat smooth terrain and very little traffic. Join us for the fun and friendship.

The Cape Fear Cyclists welcome all individuals having a common interest in bicycling, and aim to promote the safe use of bicycles for health, ecological, and recreational purposes.

About the event...

Cycle for Canines is a benefit event to help raise awareness about the Carolina Canines for Service organization and service dogs. The proceeds from the event will be divided between Carolina Canines for Service and the Cape Fear Cyclists.

Carolina Canines for Service, Inc., a 501(c)(3) non-profit, is dedicated to empowering people with disabilities to achieve greater independence and enhanced quality of life and to improving people's lives through the services of specially trained dogs.

A service dog is a dog individually trained to perform tasks for the benefit of a person with a physical disability, other than blindness.

The process of raising and training a service dog takes 2½ to 3 years.

A fully-trained certified service dog is valued at $25,000. Carolina Canines places service dogs AT NO COST to recipients!

For more information about Carolina Canines for Service, Inc. and how you can help, visit their website at www.carolinacanines.org.

Thank you for supporting the event!
